

INTERACTION

Congratulations to THEMUSEUM on the opening of INTERACTION on January 26th, 2018!

This amazing new media art installation features 18 acclaimed Canadian new media artists, as well as interactive games created by some very talented Canadian game researchers, including our Region's very own University of Waterloo Games Institute.

This exhibition is a wonderful showcase of the remarkable the talent of diverse Canadian new media artists and game researchers, and demonstrates the incredible creativity of Canadian artists from across the country.

This high-calibre exhibition will help to accentuate Waterloo Region's reputation as a vibrant centre of arts and culture. With its strong emphasis on interactivity, this exhibition has the power to engage people of all ages, languages and abilities – it truly is a cultural experience for everyone in our Region to enjoy.

This world-class exhibition offers our residents and visitors a memorable experience, while showcasing the impressive talent of Canada's next generation of artists.

This is a wonderful addition to our local culture. I wish you all the best!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bardish". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

The Honourable Bardish Chagger, PC, MP
Member of Parliament for Waterloo
Minister of Small Business and Tourism
Leader of the Government in the House of Commons